Honorable William P. Hobby
President of the Senate

Sir: I am directed by the House to inform the Senate that the House has passed the following:

ADJOURNMENT

On motion of Senator Jones of Taylor the Senate at 9:01 o'clock a.m. adjourned until 10:30 o'clock a.m. today.

TWENTY-FIRST DAY
(Thursday, February 17, 1977)

The Senate met at 10:30 o'clock a.m., pursuant to adjournment, and was called to order by the President.

The roll was called and the following Senators were present: Adams, Aikin, Andujar, Braecklein, Brooks, Clower, Creighton, Doggett, Farabee, Hance, Harris, Jones of Harris, Jones of Taylor, Kothmann, Lombardino, Longoria, Mauzy, McKnight, Mengden, Meier, Moore, Ogg, Parker, Patman, Santiesteban, Schwartz, Sherman, Snelson, Traeger, Truan, Williams.

A quorum was announced present.

The Reverend Dr. Martha Shelby, United Methodist Church, Bertram and Liberty Hill, Texas, offered the invocation as follows:

O God, help us to make this brief time of prayer a meaningful moment, and not merely a routine activity.

We confess, O God, that often we Your people do regard an invocation as a respectable and necessary custom—one that is soon done with so we may proceed to the business of the day. Forgive us if we have been guilty of such an attitude.

Help us to truly seek Your blessing and help in our work and in our lives—especially here today at this moment.

As the members of this body—the State Senate of Texas—gather now for deliberation of the people's business, bless, O God, the members as individuals, and the Senate as a whole body gathered together for serious business—our business.

Let us all remember that we are but fragile human beings—often beset with weaknesses and doubts, but endowed also with minds and bodies that can be used wisely and diligently in the work given to us. Help us so to do.

Clarify, O God, the minds and hearts of all the members of this Senate; open their eyes and ears and minds to wisdom and diligence, to fairness of judgment and to tolerance of the opinions of all.

We pray in the name of Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

On motion of Senator Aikin and by unanimous consent, the reading of the Journal of the proceedings of yesterday was dispensed with and the Journal was approved.
